

Islamic Terrorism Hits Stockholm

Islamic terrorists detonated two bombs in Stockholm, Sweden killing one man and injuring at least two others. ( <http://www.jpost.com/International/Article.aspx?id=199006> ).

“ Two explosions shook central Stockholm on Saturday, killing one person and injuring two, rescue officials said.

Swedish news agency TT received a warning ten minutes before the bombing. The warning was a recorded message in Swedish and Arabic, which arrived via e-mail, in which the attackers criticized Sweden for not taking action against a caricature of Muhammed, drawn by Lars Wilkes.

Rescue services spokesman Bengt Norberg said two people had been taken to hospital with lighter injuries. He said the dead person was still lying on the street.

"Our actions will speak for themselves, as long as you do not stop your stupid war against Islam, your humiliation of the prophet, and your support of the pig Wilkes," the warning said."

Analysis. I didn't know that Sweden was at war with Islam or anybody else. Of course to a Muslim, simply suggesting that they conform to the laws of the country they live in is an act of war against Islam. Humiliate Mohammad? Easy enough to do. Let's start with his eighth wife, Aisha, who was six when she was married to Mohammad and nine when he consummated the marriage. That makes him a pedophile almost everywhere except the Seventh Century Hejaz. As for the cartoon, Sweden respects freedom of speech which Islam does not.

Perhaps it is time that Sweden became a very uncomfortable place for Muslims to be. The Swedes must realize is that the only way to deal with an aggressive force that wants to conquer the World is to beat the crap out of them. The Swedes must decide, and rather quickly, whether or not they want a country with two life styles or one.
